

ANNOUNCING THE 4th ANNUAL

City of Alameda Community Service Awards

Join the Alameda Social Services Human Relations Board (SSHRB) to honor extraordinary volunteers, non-profits, and local businesses who make a difference in our community.

Nominations for the Community Service Awards may come from anyone in the community. The Categories include:

- Community Service Lifetime Achievement Award
- Community Service Volunteer of the Year Award
- Community Service Award – Individual
- Community Service Award – Non-Profit Organization
- Community Service Award – Non-Profit Board Member
- Community Service Award – Youth
- Community Service Award – Business or Business Person

Award winners will be recognized at a reception at the Alameda Elks Lodge, Thursday evening, October 26.

Winners will also be acknowledged at a City Council meeting on October 17, which will Proclaim November 1st "Extra Mile Day," a day where the City of Alameda urges each individual in the community to take time to not only "go the extra mile" in his or her own life, but to also acknowledge all those who are inspirational in their efforts and commitment to make our community a better place.

Alameda Community Service Awards Nomination Form
